

“No job is so urgent or important that it cannot be done safely and without endangering the health and safety of employees.”

- To comply with legal regulations and requirements,
- To protect human health through team spirit,
- To identify and control risks related to our production and services,
- To increase OHS (Occupational Health and Safety) awareness through trainings, create a culture where safe and healthy working habits are internalized, and to provide the necessary resources for this,
- To ensure continuous improvement in OHS conditions and work with minimal risks,
- To establish healthy and safe working conditions with a zero work accident and zero occupational disease approach,
- To continuously improve our OHS performance by using the best available technologies.
